Conference Introduction

We are delighted to announce the 3rd International Early-Career Researcher Conference in Hospitality and Tourism (IECR 2026) will be held in Macau University of Science and Technology (MUST) from May 8-10, 2026. We now warmly invite scholars in the field of hospitality and tourism management to actively submit papers to this conference. This conference aims to provide a platform for postgraduate students and early-career researchers to expand their research, network with the excellent scholars, and disseminate knowledge addressing the developmental opportunities and challenges in the global hospitality and tourism management. Whether you are a student, an academic, or a practitioner, this conference offers you a unique opportunity to interact with hundreds of colleagues from around the world.

We value the high-quality research article which investigates the important questions and reports the interesting findings in the field of hospitality and tourism management. We accept both conceptual and empirical articles and welcome both quantitative and qualitative research.

Route 1 A Leisurely Walk in Coloane & Taipa

Nestled in the southern part of Macao, Coloane offers a serene escape from the bustling cityscape. Unlike the iconic luxury resorts of the Cotai Strip (such as The Venetian), Coloane preserves the authentic soul of Macao—where traditional fishing villages meet stunning coastal scenery and classic Portuguese architecture.

For IECR conference guests seeking to unwind, this curated route takes you on a journey through Coloane's most iconic spots. Starting from the adorable giant pandas, we wind through historic temples, scenic coastal roads, and end at the unique black-sand beach. This itinerary is designed for a perfect blend of culture, nature, and local delicacies, allowing you to experience the laid-back lifestyle of Macao at a leisurely pace.

1. Macau Giant Panda Pavilion

<https://nature.iam.gov.mo/c/panda>

The Macao Giant Panda Pavilion, nestled within the lush Seac Pai Van Park, is a must-visit attraction for nature lovers. It serves as the home to four beloved giant pandas: Kai Kai, Xin Xin, Jian Jian, and Kang Kang. Designed with modern facilities, the pavilion features spacious indoor habitats and large viewing windows, allowing visitors to observe the pandas in their daily activities, from munching bamboo to playful antics. The surrounding park, rich in biodiversity, offers a peaceful retreat with hiking trails and scenic views, making it an ideal spot to unwind and connect with nature away from the conference buzz.

2. Coloane Wharf

<https://www.macaotourism.gov.mo/zh-hans/macao-full-of-fun/tranquility-tour-in-coloane-village/coloane-pier>

Coloane Wharf is a living testament to Macao's traditional fishing heritage. This charming harbour is lined with colourful stilt houses, family-run seafood shops, and weathered fishing boats, preserving the authentic atmosphere of a centuries-old fishing village. Visitors can take a leisurely stroll along the waterfront, breathe in the fresh sea air, and enjoy panoramic views of the South China Sea and the distant Hengqin Island. The wharf comes alive in the morning with local vendors selling fresh seafood, offering a glimpse into the daily life of the community.

3. Avenida de Cinco de Outubro

<https://www.macaotourism.gov.mo/zh-hans/sightseeing/other-attractions/mural-at-avenida-de-cinco-de-outubro>

Avenida de Cinco de Outubro is the iconic coastal promenade of Coloane, renowned for its vibrant atmosphere and scenic beauty. Lined with pastel-coloured Portuguese-style buildings, charming cafes, and small boutiques, the avenue offers a delightful blend of local culture and leisurely vibes. As you walk along the path, you can enjoy unobstructed views of the ocean, watch fishing boats bobbing in the water, and discover hidden gems such as small art galleries and traditional eateries. The avenue is also famous as the filming location for popular dramas, adding to its cultural appeal.

4. Bamboo Bay (Chuk Wan)

<https://miaobillite.bj.bcebos.com/miaobi/5mao/b%275riv5r6z5ZOq6YeM55qE5pmv54K55Lq65bCRXzE3MzAzOTQ2MDQuOTExOTc0Nw%3D%3D%27/0.png>

Chuk Wan, also known as Bamboo Bay, is a tranquil residential area tucked away on the southern coast of Coloane. The area is known for its low-rise villas, lush greenery, and peaceful beachfront. Unlike the busy parts of Macao, Bamboo Bay offers a quiet escape, with gentle waves lapping at the shore and a serene atmosphere. It is a perfect spot for a relaxed walk, where visitors can enjoy the calm sea breeze and the view of the bay.

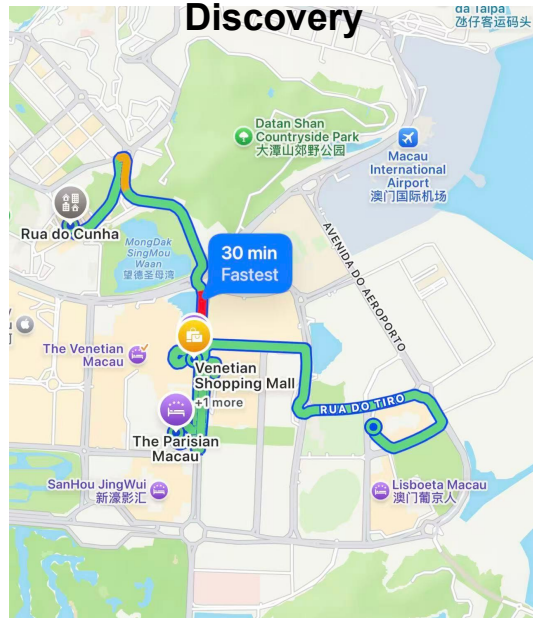

5. Praia de Hac Sa (Black Sand Beach)

https://chat.baidu.com/search/15556242686010882948?enter_type=b_pic_clear

Praia de Hac Sa is Macao's largest and most unique natural beach, famous for its striking black sand formed by volcanic minerals. Stretching over one kilometre, the beach is surrounded by lush pine trees, creating a peaceful and shaded environment. Visitors can take a relaxing walk along the shore, enjoy a picnic under the trees, or simply sit and watch the sunset over the South China Sea. The beach is also equipped with facilities such as barbecue areas and changing rooms, making it a popular spot for both locals and tourists seeking a quiet escape from the city.

Route2 Taipa Leisure & Shopping Discovery

This delightful Taipa journey connects Grand Lisboa Palace, The Venetian, The Parisian, The Londoner and Rua do Cunha in one seamless and convenient route. You can enjoy stylish sightseeing, comfortable leisure and delightful shopping here.

The area features magnificent and unique themed architecture, elegant indoor spaces, world-class shopping facilities and charming European-inspired scenery, with easy walking access between each location. Rua do Cunha shows warm and authentic local Macao culture, with delicious snacks, traditional delicacies and pleasant street atmosphere.

This well-designed route perfectly combines modern elegance, leisure shopping, architectural beauty and cultural charm, bringing you a comfortable and enjoyable experience.

1. Grand Lisboa Palace

Grand Lisboa Palace is a magnificent luxury resort located in Cotai, Macau, featuring an exquisite and grand shopping complex with elegant garden-themed design. The interior boasts splendid architectural decorations, magnificent domes, delicate carvings, and serene garden landscapes, creating a graceful and royal atmosphere throughout the venue.

Within the complex, NY8 New Yaohan provides a comprehensive and convenient shopping experience, offering fashion, cosmetics, daily necessities, electronic products, supermarket goods and various lifestyle selections. The building combines elegant modern design with cultural elements, presenting a sophisticated and comfortable environment for visitors.

With its stunning interior scenery, distinctive architectural style and all-round retail facilities, Grand Lisboa Palace allows visitors to enjoy a delightful and refined leisure and shopping experience in a luxurious and elegant setting.

2. Shoppes at Venetian

The Shoppes at Venetian is the largest indoor shopping mall in Macau, located on the third floor of The Venetian Macau Resort Hotel. Spanning an area of 968,000 square feet, it hosts over 350 retail shops, dozens of eateries, and three canals, each 390 feet long. The entire shopping complex is covered by a massive ceiling that can be computer-controlled to create lighting effects simulating the clouds and sky colors of dawn, day, and dusk. Complemented by themed streets, canals, and the 157-foot-long Rialto Bridge, the elegant and magnificent environment transports visitors to the streets of ancient Venice.

The small boats on the canals, called "GONDOLA" offer a 15-20 minute ride that is popular among tourists. Singers perform Italian songs, while the gondoliers wear traditional Italian attire, allowing visitors to experience the Venetian ambiance under an artificial "blue sky with white clouds."

3. The Parisian Macao

Source from https://ak-d.tripcdn.com/images/1mi5i224x8vokkgt2C120_W_640_0_R5_Q80.jpg?proc=source/trip

The Parisian Macao is a classic French-themed resort in Cotai, Macau, featuring elegant and romantic European architecture. It houses a stylish shopping mall with numerous retail stores, beauty boutiques and dining options.

The iconic half-scale Eiffel Tower is the most famous landmark, presenting beautiful scenery and charming views. With charming street views, exquisite interior design and comfortable shopping environment, The Parisian Macao delivers a romantic and relaxing leisure experience.

4. The Londoner Macao

Source from <https://storage.googleapis.com/public-us-wonderplan-ai/countries/MO/regular>

The Londoner Macao showcases iconic British architecture with elegant vintage styling, classic clock towers, grand facades and exquisite retro details. The exterior and interior are designed with genuine London-inspired elements, including elegant corridors, sophisticated decorations and warm, luxurious lighting.

It houses a vast shopping collection with international brands, fine shops and diverse dining choices. The sophisticated environment, charming streetscapes and elegant layouts offer a refined and comfortable leisure and shopping atmosphere.

5. Rua do Cunha

Rua do Cunha is located in the heart of Taipa Old Town, Macao, stretching about 121 meters as a iconic historical pedestrian street. Named after the 81st Governor of Macao, it features vibrant architecture blending Portuguese-style colorful facades, traditional azulejo tiles and Chinese arcade designs.

It is a narrow but bustling pedestrian street in the heart of Taipa village. The street is lined with long-established souvenir shops, Portuguese restaurants and local snacks, filled with the aroma of almond cakes, pork chop buns and Portuguese egg tarts, showcasing a strong blend of Chinese and Portuguese cultural vibes. This century-old street retains old Taipa's charm and stands as a key landmark to experience Macao's culinary and cultural essence.
